WE WANT
YOU!

Linux/Open Source Software Specialist (m/w/d)

Full-time | Innsbruck | Hybrid

You bring with you:

› Structured and independent work style
› The ability to independently learn and acquire new knowledge
› Analytical thinking skills
› Hands-on mentality
› Being a team player
› Enjoy sharing your knowledge
› Good English and German language skills

› A technical education in computer science (university, college or equivalent)
› Several years of experience using and developing Linux
› Strong C/C++ skills
› Knowledge of either Rust, Go, C#, or Java
› In-depth knowledge of recent development tools

› Ideally, experience with open source software development
› Ideally, experience with embedded Linux

We offer:

› Technically challenging and diverse projects with customers worldwide
› Collegial team with a collaborative, inclusive culture
› Working on open source projects as part of working hours
› Opportunities for continuing education (books, gadgets, evaluation boards, courses, etc.)
› Conference attendance
› Coverage of costs for KlimaTicket Tirol

› 40 hour work week
› Flexible working hours
› Possibility to work remotely
› Salary negotiation based on IT collective agreement with a gross annual salary of 55k
› Salary increases based on education, qualifications, and experience

Please apply by email to careers@sigma-star.at sigma star gmbh is based in Innsbruck and offers consulting services in the areas of security, cryptography, and Linux.

sigma star gmbh

sigma-star.at/jobs